

Definition

The "5 Why" is a problem-solving tool that allows you to go back to the root cause by asking the question "Why" several times

Don't settle for the first problems raised.

Most of the time these are just symptoms.

Going back to the root causes, the solution will be both easier to correct and more effective over time.

