

Definition

The Spaghetti diagram is a representation of the physical flows (labour and movement of parts) made to obtain a product in a process or process.

